Subject: [EXTERNAL] FW: Reminder: Public Meeting: Fraudulent Business Filings Working Group starts in 1 Day
Date: Wednesday, August 31, 2022 8:08:31 AM

Good morning,

I am not sure if I quite understand what "the Fraudulent Business Filings Working Group" is, but I do have couple of questions. Please disregard if the questions are irrelevant to this group.

1. There don't seem to be any checks and balance when an individual registers a business name. It seems like the individual can put any address or contact person they want to make up. Will there ever be more information required to start a business and register it in Colorado?
2. Due to the lack of verification of the information above, people who are scammed or done wrong by businesses will have no recourses to be able to take them to the small claim courts. The judicial branch requires notices to be delivered to the person who is named as the registered owner. If the information is wrong and made up, there is no way to pursue them through the simple channels.

Thanks,

Fariba Jackson
