

What you need to file Articles of Incorporation for a Nonprofit Corporation

Filing Articles of Incorporation for a Nonprofit Corporation is how you form your nonprofit corporation in the State of Colorado.

Per 7-90-314(1) C.R.S. you must have written consent to list the name of any person in your document, or to use their address. This is for your own records; you do not need to include it with this filing.

- Nonprofit Corporation name
 - Must be distinguishable
 - May include specific terms or abbreviations:
 - corporation
 - incorporated
 - company
 - limited
 - corp.
 - inc.
 - co.
 - ltd.
 - Note: capitalization doesn't matter, but punctuation does
- Principal office address
 - This is the main address for your nonprofit. This must be a street address.
 - Caution: this information is public.
- Mailing address
 - This may be a PO box
 - Sometimes it is the same as the physical address.
- Registered agent name
 - The registered agent is a known contact for your nonprofit. They must reside in Colorado.
 - If they are an individual, they must be 18 years of age or older.
 - Can be an individual or an entity. An individual is a natural person. An entity is an organization, estate, trust, etc.
 - The corporation can serve as its own registered agent
- Registered agent address
 - This is the street address where the registered agent is located. It must be in Colorado.
- Registered agent mailing address
 - This may be the same as the street address or be a PO box.
 - The address must be in Colorado.
- Registered agent consent
 - The registered agent must agree to accept this responsibility for your nonprofit.
- Name of the incorporator(s)
 - The incorporator can be one or more persons. The incorporator, if an individual, must be 18 years of age or older and does not have to have an actual interest in the corporation.
 - This does not determine ownership, but it would be beneficial to check with your attorney or financial advisor before filing.
 - A person could be an individual, entity, trust, state, or estate
- Mailing Address(es) of the incorporator(s)
- Voting Members & Distribution of Assets
 - You must indicate whether the nonprofit will have voting members or not.
 - You must explain how the nonprofit's assets will be distributed if dissolved.

- For more information, go to:
Life Cycle of a Public Charity | Internal Revenue Service \(irs.gov\)
- Additional information (optional)
 - Additional information is uncommon
 - Anything attached is viewable on our website.
 - If you are including an attachment, prepare your attachment before filing. You can find information on attachments on our FAQ.
 - Attachments must be PDF, text (.txt), JPG, GIF, PNG, and TIF files only. Up to 5 documents can be attached. Total attachments cannot exceed 10MB.
 - Bylaws do not get filed with our office. Keep them for your own records.
 - Some things that may be included are:
 - Names and addresses of the individuals who are serving as the initial directors
 - The purpose of the corporation
 - Managing the business of the corporation and regulating its affairs
 - Defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and its members or any class of members
- Delayed effective date (optional)
 - This is uncommon, you can use this to delay the start of a nonprofit filing up to 90 days from the current date. This is commonly used to delay a filing date towards the end of the year or when filing the same document in many states.
 - Using this can affect the filing of other documents or opening bank accounts.
 - When you don't use a delayed effective date, your filing takes effect immediately after payment.
 - Delayed effective date time is optional
- Name of the individual(s) causing the document to be filed
 - This is usually the individual(s) filling out the form.
 - The individual(s) listed would be signing the document if the document required a signature.
 - The individual(s) named affirms, under penalty of perjury, that the facts stated in the document are true.
 - You need to list at least one, but there are times when you need to list more.
- Address(es) of the individual(s) causing the document to be filed
 - You must include an address for each individual listed. The address may be the same for everyone listed.
 - This information will be viewable by the public.
- Notifications
 - You can sign up to receive email or text notifications for your business (reminders, helpful information, etc.)
- Review
 - Review your document before filing to make certain that all information is complete and correct.
 - Check that there isn't any personal information you don't want available to the public.
- Payment
 - Payment is required before filing. For more information on payment and troubleshooting, visit our FAQ.
 - Payment must be credit, debit, or prepaid account. You cannot pay with a check or cash.

After filing, our office will assign an ID number. This number is used only in our office and is not your tax or federal ID (EIN).

This will get you started. You must file a periodic report yearly for your corporation to keep it in good standing.

You may want to consider signing up for Secure Business Filing to protect your business.

If you want more information, here's an eLearning tool.