RE: Corrections to Division of Securities Rules, 3 CCR 704-1
Rule Opinion Correction, SOS Tracking No. 2017-00231

Dear Secretary Williams:

Pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-4-103(11)(d)(II), the corrections to the above-reference rules are not substantive but are changes to correct typographical errors in the rules as filed.

During the rulemaking, the Securities Commissioner adopted or amended numerous rules, and several typographical errors remained in the final adopted rulemaking. The Securities Commissioner's letter of correction makes the following corrections to the Rules: Rule 51-3.19(I) (add "to" be filed), Rule 51-3.32(C)(a)(iii) (correct spelling of "employ"), Rule 51-4.3(IA)(J)(4)(a)(ii) (remove hyphen from "news letter"), Rule 51-4.6(IA)(A)(12)(a)(ii) (delete unnecessary % symbols), Rule 51-4.9(IA)(B)(6) (fix spelling of "the"), Rule 51-4.11(IA)(H) (fix spelling of Securities Commissioner), Rule 51-6.2(H) (delete superfluous "of"), Rule 51-6.3(C)(7) (change "that" to "than"), Rule 51-6.4(A) (capitalize "notice"), Rule 51-6.5(A) and (B) (change "ro" to "to", change "that" to "than," and delete superfluous "the").

None of these corrections change the substance of the rules.

Thank you for your assistance with correcting these errors. Please call me if I can provide you with any additional information.

Sincerely,

FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
