4. Advisory board appointments

Staff presented desired profiles for additional appointments to the board. This included consideration for industry representation, geographic diversity, and individuals involved in community and talent development. Current board members provided feedback, including: a desire for an industry representative that is a consumer of public data; a desire for geographic diversity to include someone from an area that is not as economically successful as the Metro Denver area; a desire for individuals who are data experts in order to help with the ongoing educational process of showing the value in public data;

5. Data publishing

Staff provided a list of the first round of targeted data for publishing. The list included:

- Municipal budgets and financials
- State contract management
- Licensed real estate agents
- Uniform crime statistics
- Liquor licenses and related information
- Real property taxation
- Childcare and nursing home facilities

6. 2017 Go Code Colorado challenge update

Staff provided an update on the 2017 challenge planning activity completed since the prior board meeting.

7. Adjournment

Jon Gottsegen moved for adjournment and Catherine Kunst seconded. The motion passed unanimously by voice vote. Board Chair Davis adjourned the meeting at 11:21A.M.
