Submission of Proposal for Review and Comment

Attn: Mike Mauer, Director

Initiated Proposal to Amend the Colorado Constitution:

Short Title: Rent Control Unconstitutional

Title: Should it be Unconstitutional for the Government to Control Rents on Private Property?

Text: It shall be unconstitutional for the State of Colorado, a county, a municipality, or any type of governmental entity to control rents on private property by any means including but not limited to enacting any statute, ordinance, resolution, deed restriction, covenant restriction, building requirement or zoning restriction that attempts to control rents on private property. Any private property owner adversely affected from a violation of this constitutional amendment shall have the right to be indemnified including recovery of his attorneys fees and costs from all responsible parties including but not limited to the State of Colorado, a county, a municipality, or any type of governmental entity.
