Andrea,

I have a question regarding the proposed section defining "GAMES NOT CLASSIFIED AS RAFFLES." The paragraph is found on page 7, paragraph 8 of the proposed rule changes.

Questions:

1. Should the change in definition for ball drops, rubber ducky races, etc. type games of chance be approved, and they are no longer classified as raffles, would the organizations holding these types of games still fall under the guidance and approval process of the Secretary of State or would we be allowed to conduct them without the Secretary's supervision?
2. Would the games manager for the organization still have to go to training and be certified by the Secretary of State before the non-raffle could be held.
