Subject: We oppose the rewrite of election rules

Dear Secretary Gessler:

I have been informed that there is currently a move to rewrite election rules, and that part of that rewrite would eliminate party-designated election judges. I am very much opposed to that change.

It is vital that our elections have oversight from both major parties. I believe that it is entirely too possible for elections to be 'stolen', and it is critical that we have more oversight, not less.

Please leave the system as it has been for decades. Do not make the proposed changes, which would leave citizens wondering if their vote was really counted.

Sincerely,

Angie (Angela G.) and Bruce S. Many, Eckert, CO [REDACTED]
