Subject: Comments - proposed notary rules - 9/16/14 hearing

I have been a notary for many years and don't really have the time to read thru all of this legal mumbo jumbo but please keep in mind that all I do as a notary is verify someone's signature. Please don't make this so complicated that I drop my notary license. Keep it simple...don't over think this rather simple task! Where is the smaller government that I hear so much of in the republican world??????

Sincerely (and begging),
Kim Haarberg
