Subject: Comments - working draft CPF rules - Request for Occupation of Contributor

SOS,

There are good reasons why the statues request the employer of a Contributor. However, there is no good reason to ask for the occupation of the contributor. To make matters worst, filers must enter one of a limited number of (secret) codes that most often do not match the real occupation of the contributor.

My suggestion is to eliminate the requirement for a contributor's occupation.

Thanks for listening,
