Regarding the proposed rules, I fail to understand why, for those who are following the rules and keeping current with what few changes come up for notaries, we would be required to take another notary course and pass an exam in order to renew our commission. It seems like this is just administrative overkill based on a few bad notaries not doing their jobs or just another revenue building stream. For those of us doing their jobs and keeping all the proper documentation, it is not needed. It would make me think about turning in my notary and letting the state handle ongoing notifications.

Respectfully,
