I know these comments are late, we are just a little busy this time of year. I can say that I am not open to testing for Notaries such as myself that have been a Notary for decades. It's time consuming and what new things are you going to teach me through that. Also it may be different than most notaries but our firm's notaries only (most of the time) notarizes documents for Title 32 Special District such as Oaths of Office and Bond Documents. Testing for other scenarios does not apply for those of us who do not offer services to the public.

Thank you for considering my comments.
